

Rutgers Day 2017

Mark your Calendars for Saturday, April 29, 10:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m. when Rutgers University–Camden will hold the second, on-campus celebration of scholarly achievement and Rutgers spirit. Last year, Rutgers Day here in Camden attracted more than 2,000 visitors who were provided with an unparalleled opportunity to experience first-hand the excitement and personality of our wonderful campus!

This daylong event offers every academic unit, student organization, alumni group, and administrative office the chance to show case how the Rutgers tradition of excellence comes to life every day here at Rutgers. The university will promote Rutgers Day 2017 through an aggressive marketing campaign, and we have a tremendous opportunity to share our story by bringing thousands of guests – consisting mostly of families with children – to our campus to enjoy interactive exhibits and to get to know our location.

Last year, more than 100 students, faculty and staff participated in this event. This year we need your imagination and energy in order to make Rutgers Day 2017 another day to remember for Rutgers-Camden.

Please visit <http://rutgersday.rutgers.edu> to register now for this event. The opportunities are limited only by your creativity, and Kristin Walker (Director, Campus Events) is ready to provide you with ideas and examples of successful Rutgers Day exhibits. Contact Kristin at (856) 225-6325 or krwalker@camden.rutgers.edu. She is happy to meet with your group to discuss the possibilities. We want to make this a day to remember so think with imagination and innovation!

As we approach Rutgers Day 2017, we will provide additional updates. For now, we strongly encourage you and your teams, colleagues and classmates to sign up before February 24 to make sure that you are part of the festivities.

Staff at all levels should consult with their supervisors to best coordinate required attendance at this training.

Details:

- Training will be held in the Campus Center (room locations vary).
- Training will be held from 9:00am (sharp) - 1:00pm.
- Lunch will be provided, but bring your own coffee.
- Each staff member should choose one session to attend.
