

Chancellor's Awards for Staff Excellence in Service

The Chancellor's Awards for Staff Excellence in Service are awarded annually towards the end of the fiscal year to staff members or teams of staff that consistently exemplify high levels of effective and friendly service to members of the Rutgers University-Camden community.

Nominations for the Chancellor's Awards for Staff Excellence in Service are currently being accepted. The deadline for nominations for this year is Friday, April 14, 2017.

Further information regarding nomination criteria and eligibility can be found on the Camden HR website. Nominations can also be submitted via the website.

BULLETIN BOARD

Financial Wellness Seminar Series

Rutgers University Human Resources is committed to providing our university faculty and staff members with the tools and education necessary to make the best financial decisions for themselves, their families, and their futures. As part of this commitment, UHR has teamed up with a number of third-party benefit providers to develop the 2017 Financial Wellness Seminar Series, which has been designed to heighten financial literacy, provide education on various tax-savings and retirement benefits, and impart savings strategies designed to promote a solid financial footing.

There are two upcoming seminars for the Rutgers University-Camden campus. Please visit <https://hrservices.rutgers.edu/CRS/> to register.

Self-Defense Seminar

Rutgers Police Department will be hosting a self-defense seminar on March 21st, 2017. It will be held from 6:00pm to 7:30pm in the South ABC Conference Room, Campus Center. The class instructor will be Rutgers Police Officer Christopher Ford. Officer Ford has been training in martial arts for 22+ years at Gold Hawk Martial Academy in Egg Harbor. He is a fifth degree Black Belt in Taekwondo, a certified level 2 instructor in Krav Maga. He also teaches Judo, Brazilian Jujitsu, and boxing. He has competed all over the country and previously competed at the Junior Olympics and ranked fourth in the country in fighting in Taekwondo. Officer Ford will instruct on some basic self-defense techniques. The course will not certify anyone in self-defense, but merely give some tools if ever in a dangerous situation.

Chancellor's Disability Advisory Council: Training Session

The Chancellor's Disability Advisory Council is conducting faculty and staff training sessions on awareness, policies, and procedures for students with disabilities. You may have already received notification regarding this from your department supervisor or chairperson. The next training session will be held on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 (Campus Center, South BC) and will last from 12:00pm to approximately 2:00pm. A box lunch will be provided. Please RSVP to Tom DiValerio to register for this training session.
